(U) Minnesota – Alleged Boogaloo Members Face Terrorism Charges

(U) New Brighton – Two self-described "Boogaloo Bois" have been charged with terrorism-related offenses after authorities said the men discussed attacking government officials and buildings and tried to work with people they believed to be members of Hamas. Michael Robert Solomon, 30, of Minnesota, and Benjamin Ryan Teeter, 22, of North Carolina, were communicating with an undercover FBI official, not Hamas, the US Attorney's Office for the District of Minnesota said Friday.

(U) Colombia – Armed Groups Kill Dozens Across Country

(U) Zaragoza – At least 11 people were killed in three separate group killings in Colombia, police said yesterday, one of the deadliest days since FARC guerrillas signed a peace accord with the government in 2016. Experts warn that Colombia is undergoing a new cycle of violence that has been marked by an uptick in massacres just as the country hoped to have turned the page on the worst violence of the past, when left-wing FARC guerillas agreed to lay down arms in 2016 after decades of conflict.
